

Have one

CARBAUGH.

John S. Carbaugh, who about two weeks ago left his home in lower Ayr township, for a visit to his daughters in Hollidaysburg, died in that place last Friday morning from Bronchial pneumonia, aged 75 years.

The body was brought by Auto to this place last Saturday forenoon and at 2 o'clock of that day was buried in the Union cemetery.

The deceased was a son of James and Rebecca Carbaugh who moved from Adams County to the Cove when John was three years of age. From that time to the date of his death he resided in Ayr township and was highly esteemed by every one. The following members of his family survive: Mrs. Albert and Mrs. Howard Seville, of Cito. Mrs. David Thomas: Mrs. Walter Honn and John of Hollidaysburg; Edward of Freeport, Ill.; and Courtney of Big Cove Tannery. The following brothers and sisters also survive; William of Big Cove Tannery; Austin of Chambersburg; Mrs. Luther Tritle of Bridgeport, Md.; Mrs. Albert Gordon, Mercersburg; and Mrs. George Glenn of Webster Mills.

Carbaugh, John S.

24 Jan 1900

age 75 yrs

9-5-3