

Rhoda L. Cattlett

Rhoda Lavina Cattlett, quietly passed away Oct. 30, 1954 at her home at 10 a. m. death caused by multiple cerebral hemorrhages. She had been ill a year.

Born in Thompson township, March 24, 1880, aged 74 years, 7 months, and 6 days. She is survived by her husband, Lee Cattlett, and the following children, Mary Phoebe, wife of Frank Truax, of Warfordsburg, Bazzil Fench at home, Abigail Faith wife of Thomas Sigler, of Philadelphia, also by the following grandchildren, Mrs. Vera Weller, Hancock, Mr. Harold Truax, George, and Ralph Truax of Warfordsburg, Thomas Sterling Sigler of Mercersburg, also 6 great grand children. Daughter of George W., and Mary S. Bishop, also these brothers and sisters, preceded her in death, Upton, Jacob, Dennis, Dolly, Edith. She is survived by two sisters, Alda wife of Daniel Rotz, McConnellsburg, and Bertha wife of Stillwell Gordon, of Warfordsburg.

Cattlett, Rhoda L.

A short service was held at the Sipe's funeral home on Nov. 2, 1954, then proceeded to the Sideling Hill Baptist church where further services were held by Rev. T. P. Garland. She was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

S.H. Primitive Baptist