

Royal N. Clevenger

Royal Nicholas Clevenger, 76, McConnellsburg, formerly of Burnt Cabins, died early Friday morning, December 4, 1987 at the Fulton County Medical Center.

Born May 30, 1911 in Ayr Township, he was the son of Daniel M. and Minnie M. (Bivens) Clevenger. He was united in marriage to Beatrice Mumma, who died in 1986.

Mr. Clevenger is survived by one sister, Mrs. Ruth Keebaugh, McConnellsburg. Four brothers and two sisters preceded him in death.

He was a member of the Burnt Cabins United Methodist Church.

A veteran of World War II, he formerly owned and drove trucks for construction work. He was a member of the McConnellsburg American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars. Disabled American Veterans and Amvets.

Funeral services were held at 1:00 p.m. Monday, December 7 from the Kelso/Cornelius Funeral Home. The Rev. Terry Sheldon and the Rev. Kenneth Swanson officiated. Burial was made in Union Cemetery.

The Fulton County Honor Guard conducted graveside military services.

Clevenger, Royal N.

Union