

Lela J. Doyle

McConnellsburg, 94

Lela June Doyle, 94, McConnellsburg, died Tuesday, October 20, 2015, at Chambersburg Hospital.

She was born September 23, 1921, in Webster Mills, Pa., the daughter of the late Ira and the late Viola Ellen (Glenn) Bechtel. She married her first husband, Wallace Pittman, in 1948. He passed away in 1950. She married the late Willis Franklin Doyle (dec. January 6, 1979) on June 30, 1952, in McConnellsburg.

She spent most of her childhood in Webster Mills and McConnellsburg, spending time with her sister at the Mellott Hotel. After graduating from McConnellsburg High School in 1940, she was employed by the Letterkeny Army Depot as a clerk. She later worked at Johnnie's Diner in McConnellsburg, as a cook until she retired in 1996.

She was a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church in McConnellsburg. She enjoyed spending her time with her family. Whether it be a picnic at Cowans Gap, cooking dinner for the family during the holidays, her family was her enjoyment.

She is survived by two daughters: Connie (wife of Frederick) Schneider, Shippenburg, and Corinne Barges, Chambersburg; and three sons: Glenn (husband of Nancy) Pittman, Mercersburg; Albert (husband of Irene) Doyle, McConnellsburg, and Edward (husband of Gina) Doyle, Westminster,

DOYLE, LEILA JUNE

UNION

Md.; 14 grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husbands: Wallace Pittman and Willis Doyle; and one sister, Katherine Lohr.

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m., Friday, October 23, 2015, at St. Paul Lutheran Church, McConnellsburg. Rev. Neil Ray officiated. Burial was in Union Cemetery in McConnellsburg.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Paul Lutheran Church, 220 North Third Street, McConnellsburg, PA 17233.

Kelso-Cornelius Funeral Home, McConnellsburg, was in charge of arrangements.