

DEATHS

George Edw. Hammann

George Edw. Hammann, husband of the late Olive (Hendershot) Hammann, died at his home in Buck Valley, Pa., late Tuesday night, Feb. 19th, after a long illness aged 74.

Son of Mary (Siegel) Hammann and the late John Hammann, he was born in Buck Valley, Pa., where he was a life long member of the Zion Lutheran church.

He was joined in holy matrimony to Mary Elizabeth Schetrompf who preceded him in death October 12, 1909. To this union two children were born. He was later joined in marriage to Lillian Olive Hendershot who preceded him in death on August 12, 1955.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by two children, Francis Hammann, of Silver Springs, Md., and Mrs. Clara Shanholtz, of Baltimore, Md. foster son Robert Hempsky, of Amaranth, six grandchildren, one great-grandchild; sisters, Mrs. Clara Schetrompf, of Culver, Kansas, and Mrs. Blanche Oakman, of Buck Valley, also several nieces and nephews survive.

Funeral services were held at the Zion Lutheran church at 2 p. m. Saturday, with Rev. David Hoover, and Rev. Walter Twigg, officiating. Interment was made in the ad-

George Edw. Hammann

Zion Lutheran