

Creamated ?

Joseph L. Headley

McConnellsburg, 62

Joseph Lee Headley, 62, McConnellsburg, died Sunday, December 12, 2004, at Washington County Hospital, Hagerstown.

Born January 29, 1942, in Everett, he was the son of the late Don W. and Florence Potts Headley.

He was a brick and stone mason for many years.

He was a veteran of the U.S. Army. He was a member of American Legion Post 561 where he had served as post commander. He also was a member of Wesley Yeager Post 606 Fort Loudon American Legion, Mercersburg American Legion Post 517, VFW Post 655, McConnellsburg and Amvets Post 224, Chambersburg.

He is survived by two daughters: Diana D. Headley, Chambersburg, and Carman D. Madero, Belleville, Ill.; a son, Daniel R. Headley, McConnellsburg; a brother, F. Gene Headley, McConnellsburg, and two grandchildren.

Memorial services will be Thursday, December 30, at 4:00 p.m., at St. Paul's United Church of Christ in McConnellsburg with visitation until 6:00 p.m. Rev. Barron Barley will officiate. Fulton Honor Guard will have a military service at the church. Kelso-Cornelius Funeral Home Inc., McConnellsburg is in charge of arrangements.

Headley, Joseph L.