

SAMUEL R. HELMAN

Samuel Robert Helman, 74, of Star Route North, McConnellsburg, died Saturday evening at his home after an illness of five years.

Born at Markes, Franklin County, on Aug. 27, 1893, he was a son of the late Reuben and Laura Kelso Helman.

He was a member of the Methodist Church of Knobsville, and had engaged in farming in Dublin Township, Fulton County. He operated the school buses for the Forbes Road jointure for 37 years.

His first marriage was to Mrs. Reta Cooper Helman, of Carlisle, by whom he had ten children; his second was to Mrs. Cleo Gutshall Helman, of McConnellsburg, by whom he had five children.

Surviving, in addition to his widow, Mrs. Cleo Gutshall Helman, are five daughters, Mrs. Emma Truax, of Hustontown; Mrs. Freda Glunt, McConnellsburg; Mrs. Waneda Hoffman, Alexandria, Va., and Mrs. Mary Barrick and Mrs. Dorothy Bittinger, both of Carlisle; six sons, Herman Helman, of Carlisle; Guv Helman, Mercersburg, Warren Helman, Star Route North, McConnellsburg, Max and Kenneth Helman, both of Shippensburg, and Clair and Ralph, both at home; 18 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; two brothers, Norman and Donald Helman, both of McConnellsburg; two sisters, Mrs. Hazel Smith, of Chambersburg, and Mrs. Jean Appleby, St. Thomas.

Oct 21 - 1967

HELMAN, SAMUEL ROBERT