James B. Stevens, 50, of Mc-Connellsburg died Friday afternoon, January 3, 1975, in Newton D. Baker Veterans' Hospital, Martinsburg, W. Va.

Born on June 15, 1924, in Huntingdon County, he was a son of the late Harvey B. and Nell Curarn Stevens.

He was a veteran of World War II, and a member of the American Legion and McConnellsburg Lutheran Church. Mr. Stevens was operator of a repair garage in McConnellsburg.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Katherine Shimer Stevens; a brother, Paul G. Stevens of Mc-Connellsburg; two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Gittler of Johnstown and Mrs. Eleanor Felton of Hyatts-ville. Md.

Two sisters, Mrs. Vera McGinn of Detroit and Mrs. Frances Deutsch of Johnstown, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held on Monday, January 6, at 2:00 P. M. at the Kelso Funeral Home, with the Rev. Dr. David R. Hoover officiating. Full military rites were conducted by the Fulton Honor Guard. Burial was made in the Union Cemetery.
