Warfordsburg, 89

Joseph A. Zamoyta, 89, born March 1, 1931, in Brooklyn, N.Y., passed away after a brief illness

Wednesday,
June 10,
2020, in Warfordsburg.

He was the beloved son of Apolonia Lipowska Zamoyta and Stanislaus W. Zamoyta. Much loved younger brother of Mary, Vincent, Paula, and Jeanette Zamoyta. And dear uncle to Christine and Dennis Ahearn; Ruth, Mark, Paul, Margaret, and Joseph Zamoyta; Kathleen Grennon; Maureen Henline.

For his family and friends he was always someone to look up to – an electrical engineer and manager for Westinghouse, prolific film and stereo photographer, fan of classical music and the Golden Age of Radio, student of history, and last, but not least, the enthusiastic pilot of his cherished airplane. He was a frequent flyer who navigated above the Arctic Circle in his youth and who was trained in aircraft maintenance as well.

His friends, Rocky, Bud, and Dave, remember him as a wonderful friend. He was such a friend that he drove four hours just to have lunch with them each Wednesday. He was intelligent, yet very modest and laid back, one of the smartest people they know. He is also remembered by another longtime friend, Eldon. Above all, he was a wise, gentle, and steady presence in the lives of his family and many friends. He lived with dignity, humor, intelligence, caring, and self-reliance. He will be so greatly missed and always loved. Our wonderful Joe Z.

"As you 'fly west' to catch up with most of your dear pilot buddies, Uncle Joe, may God ensure that you have a smooth flight and that you rest in peace."
