

ZIMMERMAN

Wilson Zimmerman, the well-known mail carrier, died at his home on Main street Tuesday afternoon about 2:30, after hovering between life and death for almost a week, in the 36th year of his age, his death being due to pneumonia.

Mr. Zimmerman was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Zimmerman of Timber Ridge, and was born at Plum Run, Pa. Several years ago he removed with his family to Hancock, and during his residence here was never what might be termed as a well man. He soon made many friends in Hancock and something over a year ago was awarded the contract for carrying the mail from Hancock to McConnellsburg, Pa., for a term of four years. But of late, owing to failing health, he was forced to relinquish his position in favor of a substitute.

All the care and love that skilled physicians and an anxious household could devise and apply for his comfort and assistance were brought into play, but the fiat of Him who rules our incomings and outgoings had been issued, and his spirit took its flight to that home the Christian believes is the fulfillment of the life everlasting.

He was a member of the Damascus Christian church and Warfordsburg Lodge of Odd Fellows.

Besides his wife, who was Miss Rhoda Weller, he leaves three sweet little children, Ida Marie, Marshall and Kathleen, upon whom he lavished his affections, a father and mother and the following brothers and sisters, Ernest, of Thompson township, Fulton County, Pa.; Harrison, Chicago; Ira Lee, this State; Amy, wife of Dennis Seburn, Fulton county; Helen, wife of Earl Dyer, Franklin county, Pa., and Etta, at home.

ZIMMERMAN, WILSON
